Matthew Week 15 – 5:27-32

V27 Adultery /Lust

You shall not commit adultery ...looks with lustful intent

Also “looks at a woman so as to get her to lust”.

“intent” is not the intention to physically take that woman but the intent to actually think about it and think it through.

V29 So...

Avoid sin at all cost.

Removing your hand isn't the solution... Training your heart is.

Fill your day with what is good and you will not have time for what is wrong.

V31 Divorce from Deuteronomy 24:1-4

2 contemporary interpretations of the phrase the husband found “something indecent.”

1. The conservative school believed it referred to some sort of sexual sin.
2. The liberal view held that it could refer to anything dissatisfying to the husband.

Giving the paper of divorcement doesn't solve the problem. It creates the problem of adultery.

Granting divorce this way showed no love for God.

It showed no love for another human (women)

They were doing what was LEGAL but not what was right.

What are you measuring your life by?

Jesus' listeners do not need new rules. They need a new heart.

And they need to be renewed in their mind.
