

Psalms 1

Intro: There are two groups of people.

The _____ who delight in the instruction of the Lord and the _____.

Matthew – There is a sorting out coming.

V1 - “Blessed” – _____ – There are many blessings. “man” is _____.

Do you want to be blessed? How does that happen?

3 Do NOTs – _____ - _____ - _____

The person who wants to be blessed by God will not _____ to those who are wicked.

Who is wicked? Those who do not listen to the _____ from the Lord.

V2 - The blessed person _____ in the law of the Lord

“the law” = _____.

☞ Do you want to be blessed or not?

The Blessed

The blessed person _____ about the instruction of the Lord all the time.

When you read the Bible, you need to be asking yourself:

- What does this passage mean?
- What does this teach me about God?
- What does it teach me about me?
- How do I need to change my attitude?
- How do I need to change my thinking?

V3 He is like a tree

- The tree has been planted. It has been _____ there.
- It is near the stream.
- It grows towards the water

The fruit of the of a tree _____ many people.

The fruit of the tree falls to the ground and it plants other trees like _____.

The Wicked

V4 The wicked are like _____

The chaff gets _____ from the wheat and is blown away.

V5 The wicked will not stand in the judgment or among the righteous.

The wicked “will not stand” - has the idea of having the ability to withstand the _____ of God.

The righteous are not righteous because of themselves. They are righteous because they have received the righteousness of _____.

The biggest _____ is to be blessed with the _____ of God.

V6 – “the Lord knows the way of the righteous”

The Lord _____ and protects the way of the righteous.

“The way of the wicked” ends in _____.

Psalms 1

Intro: There are two groups of people.

The blessed who delight in the instruction of the Lord and the wicked.

Matthew – There is a sorting out coming.

V1 - “Blessed” – Plural – There are many blessings. “man” is singular.

Do you want to be blessed? How does that happen?

3 Do NOTs – Walk – Stand - Sit

The person who wants to be blessed by God will not listen to those who are wicked.

Who is wicked? Those who do not listen to the instruction from the Lord.

V2 - The blessed person delights in the law of the Lord

“the law” = instruction.

☞ Do you want to be blessed or not?

The Blessed

The blessed person thinks about the instruction of the Lord all the time.

When you read the Bible, you need to be asking yourself:

- What does this passage mean?
- What does this teach me about God?
- What does it teach me about me?
- How do I need to change my attitude?
- How do I need to change my thinking?

V3 He is like a tree

- The tree has been planted. It has been put there.
- It is near the stream.
- It grows towards the water

The fruit of the of a tree benefits many people.

The fruit of the tree falls to the ground and it plants other trees like itself.

The Wicked

V4 The wicked are like chaff

The chaff gets separated from the wheat and is blown away.

V5 The wicked will not stand in the judgment or among the righteous.

The wicked “will not stand” - has the idea of having the ability to withstand the judgement of God.

The righteous are not righteous because of themselves. They are righteous because they have received the righteousness of Jesus Christ.

The biggest blessing is to be blessed with the righteousness of God.

V6 – “the Lord knows the way of the righteous”

The Lord watches over and protects the way of the righteous.

“The way of the wicked” ends in destruction.