Psalm 73

The one thing we know:

God is _____ and
God is good to those who are _____ in heart.

God, Look at _____! (Ps 73:4-12)

God, Look at _____! (Ps 73:13-16)

      Self Pity = _____

The self-confident person and the "self-pity" person have this in common:
_____

The proud person has a _____ view of self and no view of God.

The self abasing person has a _____ view of self but still _____ view of God.

The story begins to turn…

What changes his ability to see things clearly?

      1) He _____ with God's people.

      2) He _____ songs of praise to God with other believers.

      3) He heard God's _____ proclaimed.

Now we get to the bottom line…

What do the wicked have?
      They are carefree and prosperous but are _____.

What do the faithful have?
      I may have trouble everyday but I have _____.

It is not "God, look at them" or
      "God, look at me" but
      "God, look at _____." – (Ps 73:17-28)

Being near to God is what matters most and is the only thing we need to desire.
It is _____.

Psalm 73

The one thing we know:
God is good and God is good to those who are pure in heart.

God Look At Them! (Ps 73:4-12)

God Look at ME! (Ps 73:13-16)
        Self Pity = PRIDE

The self confident person and the self pity person has this in common: SELF

The proud person has a high view of self and no view of God
The self abasing person has a low view of self but still No view of God

The story begins to turn…

What changes his ability to see things clearly?
1) He met with God's people.
2) And sang songs of praise to God with other believers.
3) And he heard God's word proclaimed.

And now we get to the bottom line…
What to the wicked have? They are carefree and prosperous but doomed
What do the faithful have? I may have trouble everyday ,but I have God.

It is not "God look at them" or
        "God look at me" but
        "God look at YOU." – (Ps 73:17-28)

Being near to God is what really matters and is the only thing we need to desire. It is Enough.