

Job 38-41 – March 22

The main question in Job is Who has _____ and understanding? Job 28:20

Chapters 32-37 – Job’s fourth friend _____.

Chapter 38

Job believes that God is treating him unjustly and is demanding a _____-to-_____ encounter.

“Who is this that darkens _____ by words without knowledge?”

Counsel is meant to illuminate a _____ or way to go.

Someone is not illuminating the way but is making the path _____.

How are they making the way forward dark? ...by words without _____.

We will NOT have _____ for God...God will have questions for _____!

Chapter 38 - Questions

Questions about _____.

God is making this distinction between the level of HIS _____, power and wisdom and what Job or any other _____ like you and I.

God is the ONLY ONE who knows _____ things are and _____ things are.

Chapter 39. 16 more questions that all have to do with how _____ works.

Why do elements exist that human know nothing about and never see? They exist to bring _____ to God and it is _____ if you and I ever know they exist.

Creation does what creation does because God has _____ it to be so.

Chapter 40 - Shall a _____ contend with the Almighty?

Job is sorry that he _____ things he really had no business saying.

But Job is sorry for his actions but doesn’t appear to have a _____ change.

Chapter 40:8 – God identifies the central failure of Job. Job sees God as the _____.

* Do you turn to rely on God or do you just turn on God? Cp 2 Corinthians 1:9

Chapters 40 and 41

God points out two creatures he created:

One on land – _____

One in the ocean - _____

Job, can you control these massive creatures? Obviously Job cannot but God does.

*We question God about how he runs things and why He does what He does. Implying that _____ would be better.

Isa 55:9 “As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

* God alone is all-knowing, always _____ and always _____. And that is all I need to _____.

Job 38-41 – March 22

The main question in Job is Who has Wisdom and understanding? Job 28:20

Chapters 32-37 – Job’s fourth friend Elihu.

Chapter 38

Job believes that God is treating him unjustly and is demanding a face-to-face encounter.

“Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?”

Counsel is meant to illuminate a path or way to go.

Someone is not illuminating the way but is making the path dark.

How are they making the way forward dark? ...by words without knowledge.

We will NOT have questions for God...God will have questions for us!

Chapter 38 - Questions

Questions about creation.

God is making this distinction between the level of HIS knowledge, power and wisdom and what Job or any other persons like you and I.

God is the ONLY ONE who knows how things are and why things are.

Chapter 39. 16 more questions that all have to do with how nature works.

Why do elements exist that human know nothing about and never see? They exist to bring glory to God and it is irrelevant if you and I ever know they exist.

Creation does what creation does because God has determined it to be so.

Chapter 40 - Shall a faultfinder contend with the Almighty?

Job is sorry that he said things he really had no business saying.

But Job is sorry for his actions but doesn’t appear to have a heart change.

Chapter 40:8 – God identifies the central failure of Job. Job sees God as the problem.

* Do you turn to rely on God or do you just turn on God? Cp 2 Corinthians 1:9

Chapters 40 and 41

God points out two creatures he created:

One on land – behemoth

One in the ocean - Leviathan

Job, can you control these massive creatures? Obviously Job cannot but God does.

*We question God about how he runs things and why He does what He does. Implying that our ideas would be better.

Isa 55:9 “As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

* God alone is all-knowing, always wise and always good. And that is all I need to know.